FRIDAY NIGHT CLASSICS: HEROES AND SUPERHEROES

On Friday 6th June, North Warwickshire Circle made a visit to the Symphony Hall, Birmingham to see the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra perform a programme of music saluting the biggest, boldest and baddest stars of the silver screen under the direction of conductor Richard Kaufman. Featuring music from: Superman, 633 Squadron, Raiders of the Lost Ark, Batman, James Bond and others, the party of 23 Brothers wives and family were able to savour the sonic thrill as Kaufman give them the deluxe treatment - in full symphonic sound!

On his first visit to the Symphony Hall since it was opened in 1991, Bro. Greg Moroney-Barnett admires the splendour of what is considered to be one of the finest concert venues in the world.

A packed auditorium ready to enjoy an evening of 'Superheroes' music performed by an amazing orchestra in such a beautiful bespoke auditorium!
