CATENA/NEWSLINK – NORTH WARWICKSHIRE CIRCLE

SUN HATS WERE THE ORDER OF THE DAY

North Warwickshire Brothers, wives and 'Angel' the dog, turned-out on Sunday 18th May for the first Circle summer ramble of the year centred on the historic market town of Henley in Arden. An apt starting point for the ramble as the Circle's name was derived from the North Warwickshire Hunt who used to meet in the town around the time the Circle was founded in 1935.

Enjoying the beautiful countryside which surrounds this Warwickshire town; those taking part were also blessed with wonderful sunny weather, and sun hats were definitely the dress code for the day. Led by the Circle's President Ian Swancott; the only hitch to slightly mar an otherwise perfect day, was a small case of taking the wrong turn on the route; which for Brother Ian who is also a Scouter with 2nd Shirley Scout Group; was a little embarrassing. All was forgiven however as Bro. Ian was successful in finishing the ramble at the famous Henley in Arden Ice Cream Parlour!
